Dear Florida FFA Area IV members and advisors,

From the moment I first zipped up my blue jacket, I understood that it represented far more than fabric and stitching. To me, the jacket has always been a compass—one that points toward growth, service, and the countless paths that agricultural education opens for young leaders.

Every experience I've had in FFA has reinforced that idea. The jacket has guided me into new challenges, pushed me to discover strengths I didn't know I had, and encouraged me to step into roles that once felt out of reach. It has led me to classrooms where I found my voice, competitions where I learned resilience, and communities where I learned the true meaning of service. Each direction it pointed me toward shaped the person I am today.

As I've followed those paths, I've also learned that leadership is not about standing in front—it's about walking beside others. The blue jacket has shown me the importance of lifting people up, listening with intention, and creating spaces where every member feels seen and valued. These lessons have shaped my desire to serve at a higher level, not for recognition, but to help others find the confidence and purpose that FFA helped me discover.

Being an Area IV State Officer Candidate is a privilege that I do not take lightly. I want to serve because I believe in the power of this organization to change lives the way it changed mine. I want to help members find their own direction—whether that path leads them to agriculture, leadership, or simply a deeper confidence in who they are. If elected, I will work to ensure that every member feels supported, valued, and inspired to follow the compass within their own blue jacket.

I would love to get to speak to each and every one of you, so please do not hesitate to reach out to me! I would be happy to talk to you all in person. I can also call or zoom if need be. I look forward to seeing you all at the 98th Florida FFA State Convention and Expo.

Sincerely,

Kacie Anderson
